

Fireworks Stand Permit Process

1. Complete the application form and return to the Community Development Department with $100 application fee
2. The application shall include the following:
 - a. Washington State Fireworks permit application
 - b. Washington State Consumer Fireworks Retail Sales License (blue card)
 - c. Certificate of Insurance
 1. min. coverage $50,000 bodily injury liability for each person
 2. $500,00 bodily injury liability for each occurrence
 3. $50,000 property damage liability for each occurrence
 - d. Full diagram of interior stand set-up and tent information if using tent
 - e. Dimensioned site plan of stand location including setbacks to streets, buildings, combustibles, etc.
 - f. Letter of permission from property owner
3. Once application is approved, stand may be set up. Must follow state regulations for dates and times of operation.
4. Once stand set up is complete call the Chehalis Fire Department for inspection at: 360-748-3394
5. Once the Fire Department has approved your site, sales may begin per Washington State regulations
6. After the final day of sales, complete tear down and clean-up of site.
Once done, call the Fire Department again for a site visit. If site is not cleaned, there will be a $100 fine charged to the stand owner.