This Request for Proposals (RFP) seeks responses from both private law firms and public agencies.

The City will pay the selected Public Defender for representational services, including lawyer services and appropriate staff services, infrastructure, investigation and appropriate sentencing advocacy. All proposals should take into account the adopted Standards of the City and the Washington State Supreme Court (“Standards”) when submitting proposals. Proposals should include all necessary infrastructure, training, and services necessary to comply with the Standards. Legal services provided will include, but not be limited to, interviews of clients and potential witnesses, legal research, preparation and filing of pleadings, negotiations with the appropriate prosecutor or other agency and court regarding possible dispositions, and preparation for and appearance at court proceedings. The proposal should also provide for attendance at approximately 15 arraignments per month. There is the potential for a full contract agreement in future. Necessary and reasonable expert witness, investigative and other services as detailed in the attached form Contract (“Contract”) will be paid directly to the expert or investigator or reimbursed to the contract provider when authorized by the Court.

IV. SELECTION CRITERIA

The selection of a Public Defender will be based upon the ability of the proposer to best meet the guidelines established by the 2011 Washington State Bar Association which state:

The object of these guidelines is to alert the attorney to the course of action that may be necessary, advisable, or appropriate and thereby assist the attorney in deciding the particular actions that must be taken in a case to begin ensuring the client receives the best representation possible.

In its evaluation process, the City will consider the completeness of the written proposal, the qualifications of the specific individuals proposed for assignment to act as a Public Defender, the proposer's history of successfully fulfilling contracts of this type, experience in similar work, the proven or potential ability of the proposer to fully comply with all Standards as well as the competitiveness of the fee structure proposed. Each proposal will be independently evaluated on these factors.

V. TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- A. The City reserves the right to reject any and all proposals and to waive minor irregularities in any proposal.
- B. The City reserves the right to request clarification of information submitted and to request additional information from any proposer.
- C. The City reserves the right to award any Contract to the next most qualified proposer, if the successful proposer does not execute a Contract within thirty (30) days after the award of the proposal.
- D. Any proposal may be withdrawn up until the date and time set for opening of the proposals. Any proposal not timely withdrawn shall constitute an irrevocable offer for a period of sixty (60) days to provide to the City the services described herein or until or more of the proposals have been approved by City administration, whichever first occurs.

E. The Contract resulting from the acceptance of the proposal shall be in approximately the form shown in this RFP. A copy of the Contract is attached for review. Any proposed amendment to the Contract should be noted in the proposal submitted. The City reserves the right to reject any proposed Contract change which does not conform to the specifications contained in the RFP, or which is not warranted to provide a level of service sufficient to meet the adopted Standards. Any proposed amendment to the Contract should be noted in the proposal submitted.

F. The City shall not be responsible for any costs incurred by a firm in preparing, submitting, or presenting its response to the RFP.

G. Term. Public defense services will commence on September 1, 2023, and terminate on December 31, 2025. The parties may mutually agree to extend the resulting contract for an additional term of two (2) years.

H. Screening. Termination of indigency for eligibility for appointed counsel for this contract shall be determined by the Chehalis Municipal Court. The Public Defender will not be responsible for screening potential clients. Should the Public Defender determine a defendant is not eligible for assigned counsel, the Public Defender will so inform the court and move to withdraw from the case.

I. Reporting. The Public Defender shall file monthly reports with the City delineating each client who has been appointed to the Public Defender for representation, in a format mutually agreed to by the parties. The format shall not include attorney/client privileged information. The report shall designate whether the client was “conflicted” to another attorney for representation or the client hired another private attorney. The court will indicate the charges filed and the disposition of any case as appropriate. The report shall be due within 45 days of ending representation.

J. Case Count. A case is defined as the filing of a document with the court naming a person as defendant or respondent, to which an attorney is appointed in order to provide representation. Multiple citations from the same incident will be counted as one case. Each case is counted only once, irrespective of any subsequent reappointments pursuant to a failure to appear (hereinafter FTA). Cases will be counted at the time of the first appointment. Cases subsequently conflicted, where a private attorney is hired, will be noted on the next report and will not be counted as a Public Defender case.

K. Associated Counsel. Any counsel associated with or employed by the Public Defender shall have the authority to perform the services called for herein, and the Public Defender may employee associated counsel to assist at the Public Defender’s expense. The Public Defender and all associated counsel hired pursuant to this section shall be admitted to practice pursuant to the rules of the Supreme Court of the State of Washington. Sufficient counsel shall be provided to represent defendants during a vacation and illnesses, in settings in more than one courtroom.

L. Attorney Conflict. In the event the Public Defender must withdraw from a case because of a conflict of interest, the Public Defender shall refer the defendant to another attorney competent and able to provide legal services to the indigent. The cost of conflict counsel shall be paid by the City and not by the Public Defender.

M. Discovery Provided. The City will provide the Public Defender all discoverable materials concerning each assigned case with the exception of audio and video tapes which shall be made available for inspection in accordance with the rules of discovery. The Public Defender will receive electronic copies of discovery or may request hard copies to be provided. The attached form Contract provides additional information regarding other routine and non-routine services and reimbursements.

N. Assignment Prohibited. No assignment or transfer of the Contract or any interest in the Contract shall be made by the Public Defender without the prior written consent of the City.

O. Case Loads. Proposers holding more than one public defense Contract shall list each Contract. All attorneys providing services shall maintain a case load which fully complies with the City and Washington State Supreme Court Standards, whichever is more restrictive. Copies of quarterly certifications to the court shall be provided to the City. In the event that these Standards significantly change during the term of the agreement, the parties will meet and renegotiate the terms of the Contract. A "significant change" is a change beyond the adopted City or Supreme Court Standard which materially alters a term or condition of the Contract.
